

Profile

174

1979: Born in Hamamatsu city, Shizuoka Prefecture

March 2001: Bachelor of Arts, graduated the Furniture course, Department of Design, Tokyo Zokei University.

Prize:

May 2001: "PENCIL SHARPNER WITH PETBOTTLE", awarded the first prize in the second Shachihata new product design competition.

December 2001: "perspective of the playground equipment", awarded the grand-pris and the Interactive art prize in the Digital Stadium Award 2001 (TV program "Digital Stadium" in the NHK BS1).

March 2002: "Rakugakicho", awarded the judges award (Kenya Hara prize) in the Third Shachihata new product design competition.

April 2002: "perspective of the playground equipment", anticipated to be exhibited in the second judgement.

Exhibition history:

March 2001: the work "inter-reflection" is exhibited as an Opening Exhibition at the gallery "site" (in Ebisu, Tokyo).

August 2001: Entered "Blink glasses" and "perspective of the playground equipment" to the TV program "Digital Stadium". The latter was chosen as the best work of the week and nominated to the grand-pris. The theme of the week was "Media art turns on the charm especially in downtown", the curator was Toshio Iwai.

In the same month, entered the work "specimen of a blink" to "oiai exhibition" in a gallery in the "Create Hamamatsu".

Work as an assistant to Toshio Iwai in Research Center for Advanced Science and Technology, The University of Tokyo.