

SCOTT SQUIRES
 Visual Effects Supervisor
 Industrial Light & Magic
 a division of Lucas Digital Ltd.

As a pioneer in the use of computer and digital technology for film, Scott Squires combines technical expertise with a highly creative touch. Squires has developed a number of breakthrough techniques including the "Cloud Tank Effect" used in the film Close Encounters of the Third Kind.

In 1979, Squires co-founded Dream Quest Images and was a visual effects supervisor, as well as the company's president, for six years. Dream Quest projects included Blue Thunder, The Adventures of Buckaroo Banzai, Deal of the Century, One From the Heart and Blade Runner. Squires joined Industrial Light & Magic in 1985.

In 1994, Squires received a Scientific and Engineering Award from the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for his pioneering work in the area of film input scanning. He received an Oscar nomination for best achievement in visual effects for The Mask and recently received his second nomination for Dragonheart.
