DigiCrime, Inc.

A full service criminal computer hacking organization

Digicrime was once blocked by the state of Utah. Go figure...

DigiCrime has also been blocked by the utterly clueless McAfee VirusScanX 4.0. Fat lot of good it does against this

Note also that tu cows says

Please disable anti-virus software while installing Internet Explorer.

hmm.....we wonder why?

For a limited time only we are offering a free cupholder for visitors to our site.

Whatever you do, do NOT click here. You can however try our new free email service: Free Email! NEW

As the industry leader in the digital underworld, we are pleased to offer a full range of criminal services and products to our customers. Our willing staff of ethically challenged programmers and network analysts are standing by to serve you at pay phones and IRC channels around the world. We look forward to doing business with you.

In response to numerous queries, we would like to emphatically deny that we were responsible for the crash of the space shuttle columbia, in spite of our past exploits in space. We would also like to clarify that DigiCrime is not listed on the NASDAQ or any other public stock exchange, nor do we have any plans to go public. In order to protect the future growth potential of the company, we prefer to remain privately held.

Please read our disclaimer.
