J. CHRISTIAN WEDGE
Vice President/Creative Director
Blue Sky Studios, Inc.

Chris Wedge, long considered one of the top computer animation directors in the world, is the driving force behind the high standard of character animation that has brought Blue Sky to the attention of feature studios as well as the advertising industry. Chris Wedge began his career as a stop-motion animator then joined MAGI-SynthaVision (Elmsford, NY) in 1980 where he was one of the principal animators on the ground-breaking Disney movie, TRON. In addition to his award winning work as Director of Animation for the 1996 Warner Bros./Geffen Films production, Joe's Apartment, he is also directing his own short film scheduled for completion by Spring 1997.
